

2024 Market Sale Rules and Regulations

READ THE CODE OF ETHICS LINKED ON THE LIVESTOCK PAGE.

1. The market animal divisions are only open to bona fide Pope County 4-H'ers and FFA members.
2. 4-H'ers and FFA entrants may show market animals during the first County Fair after High School graduation.
3. The sale of the Market Animals is under the supervision of the Pope County Fair Market Sale Committee.
4. No more than one animal per exhibitor will be allowed in the Junior Livestock Sale. Should an exhibitor qualify more than one entry for auction the exhibitor must choose which one will be sold. Alternates in each market show will be selected by the judges to assure a full complement of animals in the sale order. Should an animal be disqualified for any reason, the next lower placing animal in the show will be named.
5. The sale order will be determined by the Judge officiating in each market show.
6. The sale is limited to the following: Approximately 60 animals reflecting fair distribution from each species participating related to but not solely determined number of entries.
7. Animals will be weighed at check-in (Tuesday, 12:00 noon – 5:00 pm or Wednesday, 8 am – 12:00 noon.) If the required weights are not met, animals may be reweighed prior to Wednesday, 5:00 p.m. *
8. No substitutions will be allowed for market sale entries.
9. Each exhibitor is responsible in seeing that his animal enters the auction ring in proper order.
10. Animals must have been owned a minimum of 90 days (exception Rabbits and chickens).
11. Exhibitors must show their own animal. When extenuating circumstances exist preventing the owner from showing the animal, the junior will contact the Livestock Superintendent prior to day of show. An injury incurred on day of show would result in special consideration. Livestock Superintendent will contact no less than five members of the livestock committee to make the final decision as to whether circumstances warrant another 4-H'er or FFA member being allowed to show the animal.
12. Exhibitors must Present their own animal during market sale. When extenuating circumstances exist preventing the owner from presenting the animal during sale, the junior will contact the Livestock Superintendent prior to day of sale. An injury incurred on day of sale would result in special consideration. Livestock Superintendent will contact no less than five members of the livestock committee to make the final decision as to whether circumstances warrant another 4-H'er or FFA member being allowed to present the animal.
